

They say they're coming to “kick the table over... and take over.”

Operation Rescue / Operation Save America youth group at an Orlando, Florida, Barnes & Noble, June 2, 1998.

Operation Save America is coming to Columbus to pick an argument.

They're counting on you to give them one.

They've already announced they'll stop at nothing short of taking over, without compromise or negotiation.

They're demanding the forceful elimination of our neighbors, our communities and our way of life, and the snuffing of pluralism and freedom.

Clearly, arguing with bullies like these is pointless.

To them only one word need be said, and it's a complete sentence: “NO.”

July 17 through 24 in Columbus. See website for details.
